Committee member responsibilities and meetings

CWP is working in the professional area of publishing, and committee members are expected to have a professional attitude to their role. They are required to be active in a responsibility or role, and to attend all committee meetings, unless for an exceptional reason. Meetings are held 5.30pm to 6.30pm on the first Monday of alternate months, or more often as required, by Zoom or at a venue in the Hobart area to be advised.
